

Snelling Center for Government: Early Childhood Leadership Institute 2019 Session Descriptions

The Early Childhood Leadership Institute was initiated in 2014 and seeks to stimulate enthusiasm for and effective participation in efforts to improve early childhood work in Vermont. A group of diverse participants will come together each year, for twelve seminar days over six months, to gain leadership skills and a deeper knowledge and understanding of the science and landscape of early childhood issues in Vermont. ECLI will give participants the information, tools and inspiration to make greater contributions in their organizations, their communities and Vermont toward early childhood issues. ECLI Associates will join a professional network of over 900 Vermont Leadership Network Alumni.

Graduates of ECLI will enjoy a greater:

- Understanding of themselves as leaders and of their impact on others
- Growing knowledge and understanding of the science and landscape of early childhood issues in Vermont
- Habits of curiosity, listening and reflection and other aspects of common leadership styles
- Ability to bring a systems perspective to key early childhood issues in Vermont
- Awareness and authentic engagement with people of differing backgrounds, viewpoints, and styles as well as developing management and mentoring strategies
- Positive approach to complex issues, opportunities and lifelong learning
- Broad leadership network and a focus on collaborative leadership
- ECLI and the VT Program Director Credential
- The Program Director credential recognizes early childhood and afterschool professionals who have gained the Competencies for Program Directors of Early Childhood and Afterschool Programs. Achievement of this credential is a sign of quality and leadership in the field. ECLI is equivalent to the Leadership, Mentoring and Supervision course requirement for the Program Director Step 2 certificate. ECLI assignments may in some cases be appropriate to meet certain competency documents for the Program Director Step 3 portfolio.

Session Information

Session 1: Opening Retreat: Know Thyself – May 9 and 10, Vergennes, Basin Harbor Resort
Team building exercises and experiential learning set a tone of collegiality. Self-assessment tools including the Myers Briggs Type Indicator illuminate diversity of leadership, management and communication styles and strategies for participants in their organizations. With coaching and small group dialogue assistance, associates reflect on personal goals and begin to analyze insights about participants' strengths and areas of growth to a 6 month+ personal leadership practice plan.

Session 2: Leadership in Context of the state of early childhood and families in Vermont – June 20 and 21, Burke, Burke Mountain Resort

The class explores leadership through various theories, lenses and frames. These include diversity, implicit bias, inclusivity, cultural competency and common leadership theories within the perspective of personal, ethical, social and professional values. The class continues building understanding of their own leadership style and strengths while continuing to apply insights to their work and management with stakeholders and their organizations.

Session 3: Connecting Human Centered Systems – July 25 and 26, Essex, The Essex

Application of leadership mentoring, communication, ethical issues, values, power and privilege will be used as lenses for the exploration of complex systems and systems change. Associates will begin to examine with Vermont leaders the political, fiscal, and cultural realities (health, human services, education) within their own work, experience and systems. Participants apply session tools to systems thinking and organizational strategic planning.

Session 4: The Shaping of Early Learning and Development Policies – August 15 and 16, Montpelier, Capitol Plaza
Participants deepen their understanding of the nuances of Vermont’s government and policy-making. Science and early education policy set the stage for further exploration of the multiple dimensions of complex issues and systems thinking. Associates apply leadership tools, self-awareness and their personal leadership plan to discussions with the many people involved in large-scale decision-making processes, as well as clarify advocacy steps in their own organization’s initiatives and beyond. Representatives from different branches of government, the media and special interests explore the policy making interplay among values, ethics, policy and finance in the public and private sectors.

Session 5: Data and Decision Making – September 12 and 13, Manchester, Hildene
Participants practice Appreciative Inquiry leadership framework to initiatives in their organization such as mentoring, recruiting and hiring. Associates practice Results Based Accountability key concepts while analyzing what data is, and how it can be used in their organization’s initiatives, in Vermont and nationally. Vermont’s leaders and data stewards highlight how data for families and early childhood is gathered from resources such as Vermont Insights and utilized across Vermont agencies and organizations to inform and make decisions.

Session 6: Commencement – October 18 and 19, Fairlee, Lake Morey Resort
Associates reflect on the application of their learning to their personal, professional and community work in the future. Festivities honor their efforts and commitment with family and friends.
